"Drink More" And What To Drink.

Dr. Titus Munson Coan, in Harper's Magazine, declares in favor of "Soda Water" for table use. "Soda Water (more properly called Carbonated Water) whether manufactured or natural is a POWERFUL AID TO DIGESTION by stimulating the stomach and also probably aiding to dissolve the mineral ingredients of the food. It is very appetizing, it corrects acidity in the stomach, checks the disposition to nausea and cools the system in febrile complaints and is indeed the ideal beverage for the water drinker."

May me not supply you with our beverages?
Yours for health, first, last and all the time.

PARKER RANCH BOYS WON—POP-
ULAR ZAMLOCH BATTED OUT
OF THE BOX—THE TEAMS.

[Special to The Bulletin.]

Waimea, Hawaii, Sept. 26.—On the afternoon of Sunday, the 25th inst., Waimea witnessed an unusual scene. A large crowd, of a size even larger than at a Waimea race meeting, assembled to witness an exciting baseball match between the Parker ranch boys and a scratch team selected from one-half the island of Hawaii. People had come the day before. Those from Hilo, Hakalau, Paaui, Honokaa, Kukuiahae and Waipio were conveyed by the Volcano stage line. Private carriages also brought others from the same places. The North Kohalaites all turned up in full force on horseback. In fact, the interest displayed far exceeded the expectation of the promoters. It was surprising to think how in such an isolated and comparatively empty spot as Waimea such a crowd could have collected.

Manager Carter had thrown open the ranch houses for the accommodation of the visiting team. He with the aid of the ranch boys, had also taken much interest in carefully preparing the grounds, which were certainly in fine condition for play, giving the spectators good view of the proceedings.

The visiting team included all the crack players of Hamakua and Hilo. Amongst these was the popular entertainer Zamloch, from Honolulu, who apparently adds the art of pitching to his other accomplishments, being as we understand a well-known player on the mainland. In spite of all these advantages and though they played a remarkably good game, they were unable to withstand the superior skill of their opponents, who made the game their own throughout, ending in a victory for the Parker ranch boys by a score of 27 to 8.

The fact is that the ranch team holds several ex-champion players from the Kamehameha and St. Louis schools, Honolulu, who in spite of being out of practice and the deterioration popularly supposed to accompany age, do not seem to have degenerated in the least; so that their victory though unexpected even by themselves, is readily explained.

An amusing incident happened in reference to Mr. Zamloch. He shines chiefly as a pitcher, but instead of putting the strikers out as he was confidently expected to do, he was hit all over the field, so that he had to be withdrawn and another pitcher, Unauna, from Waipio, substituted.

The umpires were Sam Woods of Puuhue, North Kohala and J. Irwin of Kukuiahae.

The make-up of the teams follows:

Thousands Greet At Aala Park Republican Nominees

The largest and one of the most demonstrative crowds of the campaign turned out and completely spread itself over the level lawn of Aala Park on Saturday evening to give ear to the eloquent company of Republican speakers. All classes, all races, and, it seemed, all persuasions, were well represented, women and children gathering in great numbers with the men and making themselves comfortable on the grass. Hawaiian families, with lunches, were conspicuous, partaking of refreshment in circled groups by the light of innumerable torches planted round about the platform raised in the middle of the great expanse. At least two thousand persons attended the meeting.

John C. Lane and J. H. Dowsett, Senatorial nominees, were welcomed by tremendous ovations. They were cheered again and again. Lane dwelt at length and with forceful eloquence on the great works hitherto accomplished by the Republican party and of the work which the party was bound to see accomplished. He particularly mentioned efforts to cure leprosy, pledging the interest of the party in this important matter. Dowsett urged the unqualified support of Kuhio for Delegate, giving convincing reasons heretofore advanced in his masterly addresses.

Solomon Mahelona spoke in both English and Hawaiian. This versatile Fifth District nominee for Representative was enthusiastically applauded. His speech in English was as unflinching as his Hawaiian address. In the former he scored the Advertiser for its attacks on the Fifth District representative ticket. The speaker referred to the criticism to the effect that the Fifth's candidates were unfit to run as being unable to make laws since they were not versed in the English language.

Mahelona called upon those who heard him speak in English to bear witness as to his ability in the handling of that tongue. The demonstration that followed proved clearly that the crowd appreciated the speaker's forceful use of the best English and Hawaiian.

Mahelona expressed himself as not favoring legislation protecting gambling. He believed that games of chance did the people no good and were a curse not to be tolerated, affecting both individuals and the community. He strongly characterized accusations of opposing factions, in the gambling connection, against the Fifth District nominees, as a tricky scheme, composed altogether of lies and "hot air," saying that charges of favoring gambling were trumped up, that there was no truth in them. All this, declared the speaker, was but the bluff of the enemy whose sole aim is to knock the Carter Administration. He assured the multitude that the Fifth District would win a great victory, adding that he would do all in his power, fighting to the last, to help win the day. He would work up to the moment of casting his ballot. All others backing the cause of good government and Republican success should do the same. Mahelona exhorted voters not to split the ticket, but to vote the ticket straight.

Two women spoke. Mesdames Mahulelua and Kekaha called upon all to support the Republican ticket, the men to vote straight and the women to assist in the spread of Republican principles. They were heard with careful attention, interrupted by loud cheering now and again.

Solomon Kaleiopi, another man who speaks both English and Hawaiian well and understands and means what he says in either tongue, spoke of the party and of Delegate Kuhio in terms of emphatic praise. He maintained that it was impossible to test the capabilities of candidates by holding back votes. Governor Carter was referred to as a man most strenuously engaged in working for the welfare of the Territory, the good of all, the advancement of government of, by and for the people. "With Carter as Governor," declared Kaleiopi, "every citizen has access to the head of the Government." He stated that such a thing had been impossible under the monarchial and Hawaii Republic administrations.

Two former Home Rulers mounted the platform to speak for the Republican cause. Palekaluhi and Kamakoa declared the Home Rule party had never accomplished anything for the benefit of the Islands and never would. Samuel Allen presided at the meeting. Among the speakers, all insisting on a straight vote for the Republican ticket, were Charles Broad, Oscar Cox, Mahupulu and Koehelo.

Far into the evening the park rang with the voices of earnest men. The crowd was as full of enthusiasm at the end as at the first. The meeting was voted a grand success.

ELKS TAKE TO WOODS

STAMPEDE IS PENDING
ON HAWAII AND OAHU

SHADES OF POMOIKI AND HALE-
IWA CAUSE ANTLERS TO TOSS AND FEET TO STAMP.

Both the Hilo and Honolulu herds of Elks having tired of city life have undertaken short stampedes into the country. The Hilo Elks, sure of fresh water and a new growth of lantana, are going to a hiding place in the lava hills of Puna. The Honolulu herd will head for the sand dunes on the Waialua beach, where the grass is long around the Haleiwa hotel. A strange coincidence is that the stampedes are on foot for the same calendar day, proving the habits of the noble animal to be the same whatever isle may be his habitat.

The Hilo proclamation reads as follows:

Dear Sir and Brother: Hilo Elks will stampede Sunday, October 9th, 1904, at Pohoiki, Puna. The cost of the outing will be $75.00 per head, which includes all expenses for transportation and refreshments. A special train will leave Hilo at 8 o'clock a. m. Sunday, returning at the convenience of the party—before daylight.

Pohoiki is one of the most attractive spots on Hawaii, rich in beautiful scenery and cool, refreshing shade trees, besides shelter in case of rain. It is an ideal place for a stampede. There will be good bathing (for the unwashed), roast pig (which is not pol dog), ample liquid refreshment (but no whiskey), donkey (to ride), and a supply of guava jelly. Everybody come!

Faithfully and fraternally yours, H. T. Lake, chairman, C. L. Stow, F. Souza, W. H. Schoening, H. Vicens.

The Honolulu manifesto is as follows:

Brothers: On Saturday, October 8th, there will be a run of the Honolulu Antlered Herd to Haleiwa, returning on the Limited train on Sunday evening, October 9th. The hotel will make a special rate of $100.00 for the round trip, including transportation. If a sufficient number of you to fill a car, notify me, I can obtain a special parlor car for Elksdom. Saturday, a luau and dance; Sunday, golf, lawn tennis, fishing, shooting, bathing—salt or fresh—canoeing, riding, driving, pool and billiards, croquet, etc., etc.

Come yourself and help with some missionary work among the other brothers. Those of you who have wives and daughters come with the whole herd, the more the merrier. Let me know by telephone, King 53, or better, by letter just what accommodations you and yours will need.

Fraternally,
FREDERIC J. CHURCH.

DON'T FORGET that to vote in the coming Territorial election YOU MUST REGISTER.

CLOSE CRICKET GAME

A game of cricket was played on the Makiki grounds last Saturday afternoon between teams picked by R. Anderson and Stanley Beardmore. Neither team distinguished itself by an especially large score. Lieut. Gibson, R. Anderson and T. Gill made scores of 20, 19 and 17 runs respectively. The rest of the players of Anderson's team made but small scores. Consul R. de B. Layard bowled five men of this team.

Stanley Beardmore's team met with poor luck. Captain Beardmore was caught by Martin, bowler McAuliffe after he had made only three runs. This is by far the smallest score made by this reliable player for many a day. R. de B. Layard made 34 runs, the largest score of the day. Arthur Jordan distinguished himself by making seven runs, which is quite a respectable score for so new a player. It is hoped that young Jordan will step in the footprints of his sire, Veteran Jordan, who is one of the most enthusiastic cricketers in the Islands. Anderson's team won the game by a score of 85 to 79 runs.

The detailed scores were as follows:
